Sir,

I have the honor to state that with a view to look after the interior of the Museum on Khoosha days i.e. every Monday afternoon from 2 to 5-30 P.M., when no male members of the staff could remain inside, and to attend upon the fair visitors, the services of a woman was being entertained for this work and a sum of annas eight was being paid to her as monthly wages from the office Contingencies. Although the expenditure was being incurred from February 1906, The Comptroller has now taken objection to it. I request you therefore to kindly obtain the sanction of Government for meeting this recurring expenditure of annas eight from the office Contingencies.

I have the honor to be,
Sir
